

High Country Association of Realtors Scholarship Application 2021-2022

Postmark Deadline: April 16, 2022

Eligibility Requirements

- Student must reside and attend Alleghany, Ashe, Avery or Watauga County School Districts
- Application must be filled out completely

The High Country Association of Realtors seeks to award $6000 to one lucky applicant from one of the four counties listed above and $2500 to one student in each remaining three counties. Our objective is to build young leaders of character by providing post-high school scholarships for each county within our district. These leaders live with high ethical standards and are committed to service in their personal, school, business and community lives. The HCAR Board of Directors administers the annual Scholarship Award to college or trade school-bound high school seniors based on demonstrated academic aspiration and community services.
